Reference to South Sudan Football Association Quarterfinal competition, Northern Bahr El Ghazal state will host the first ever football match between Aweil Meriekh Club and Bentiu Nahda club on Saturday, August 18, 2012 in Aweil Freedom Square football field. This match will be followed by another competition between the same teams on Saturday, August 25, 2012 in Bentiu Downtown. The Football Match is highly expected not only by excited supporters of the two clubs but also by youth and sports institutions of entire Republic of South Sudan in engaging youths in productive sport activities. The match will be organized around the theme "A Goal for Peace". The government of Northern Bahr el Ghazal Ministry of Culture, Youth & Sports, supports it.

As thousands of men and Women around Northern Bahr El Ghazal and Unity States are preparing to watch the Football match on the above mentioned dates, our coaching staff are set to provide a fair judgment among the two teams. This group of top coaches from Kuacjok and Rumbek will work with the teams throughout the competition where the winner for South Sudan Semi-final Cup for 2012 will be selected to play in Juba on Saturday September 5, 2012.

It's worth mentioning that Aweil Meriekh Club defeated Grassco Kuacjok twice in Aweil and Kuacjok on July 28th, and August 4th, respectively.
