

DRAFT INTERIM CONSTITUTION OF SOUTHERN SUDAN, 2005

PREAMBLE

We, the People of Southern Sudan

Grateful to Almighty God for giving the people of the Sudan the wisdom and courage to reach a peace agreement which ended a long and tragic conflict;

Recalling our long and heroic struggle for justice, freedom, equality and dignity in the Sudan;

Remembering the selfless sacrifices of our martyrs, heroes and heroines;

Committed to the Comprehensive Peace Agreement of January 9, 2005 and the Interim National Constitution of the Republic of the Sudan, 2005;

Dedicated to a genuine national healing process and the building of trust and confidence in our society;

Determined to lay the foundation for a peaceful and prosperous society based on justice, equality, respect for human rights and the rule of law;

Further committed to establishing a decentralized democratic multi-party system of governance in which power shall be peacefully transferred and to upholding values of human dignity and equal rights and duties of men and women;

Cognizant of our duty and responsibility to safeguard and ensure the true exercise of our inalienable right to self-determination through a fair and an internationally monitored referendum; and

Conscious of the need to sustainably and efficiently manage our natural resources for the benefit of the present and future generations and to eradicate poverty and attain the Millennium Development Goals;

Do hereby adopt and promulgate this Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan as the supreme law by which Southern Sudan shall be governed during the Interim Period, and undertake to abide by, respect and defend it.

PART ONE

Regulations of the Assembly

- 73. (1) The Assembly shall, on the initiative of its Speaker, make internal regulations for the conduct of its business.
- (2) The Speaker shall ensure that the internal regulations of the Assembly are respected and enforced.

Quorum

- 74. (1). The ordinary quorum for sittings of the Assembly shall be more than half of the members; however, internal regulations may provide for a reduced quorum that may not apply for the final presentation of bills.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided for in this Constitution, any question proposed for decision of the Assembly shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting.
- (3) The Speaker or any other officer of the Assembly presiding over the sitting shall have no casting vote and if on any question before the Assembly the votes are equally divided, the motion shall be considered lost.

Publicity of Sittings of the Assembly

- 75. The sittings of the Assembly shall be open to the public; its proceedings shall be published and may also be broadcast. However, the Assembly may decide according to its internal regulations that certain deliberations take place in camera.

Passing Legislative Resolutions

- 76. Resolutions of the Assembly shall, whenever possible, be taken by unanimity or consensus. Alternatively, resolutions shall be passed by simple majority of those present, save in cases where this Constitution provides otherwise.

Prerogative of Members of the Assembly

77. Members of the Assembly shall freely and responsibly express their opinions, subject only to the provisions of the regulations of the Assembly. No legal proceedings shall be initiated against any member, nor shall he or she be accountable before any court of law only by reason of views or opinions that he or she may have expressed in the course of performing his or her duties.

Address by the President of the Government of Southern Sudan

78. The President of the Government of Southern Sudan may personally or by a message address the Assembly or any state legislature in Southern Sudan. The Assembly shall accord priority to such request over any other business. The President may also request the opinion of the Assembly on any subject.

Addresses by the Vice President and Statements by Ministers and Governors

79. (1) The Vice President of the Government of Southern Sudan may request to address the Assembly. The Assembly shall provide an opportunity for hearing such address as promptly as possible.
- (2) A minister of the Government of Southern Sudan may request to deliver a statement before the Assembly.
- (3) The Assembly may request a Governor of a state in Southern Sudan to make a statement before it on any important matter concerning his or her state for information.

Addressing Questions by Members of the Assembly

80. Members of the Assembly may, within the competence of the Assembly and subject to its regulations, address questions to a minister of the Government of Southern Sudan on any subject relating to his or her duties; the said minister shall provide the Assembly with a prompt reply.

Requesting Statements

81. Subject to the regulations of the Assembly any of its committees may request a minister of the Government of Southern Sudan to deliver before it a statement on any matter of public concern.

General Summons

82. (1) The Assembly or any of its committees may summon any public official or any person, other than the President and the Vice President of the Government of Southern Sudan to testify before it or give opinion to the Assembly or any of its committees.
- (2) Inquiry on any matter that falls within the direct responsibility of the Southern Sudan Executive may only be made after notifying the President of the Government of Southern Sudan.
- (3) Any person who refuses to appear before the Assembly or any of its committees or refuses to produce any documents as required under sub-Article (1) above commits an offence punishable by law.

Tabling of Bills

83. (1) The President of the Government of Southern Sudan, the Council of Ministers, a minister or a committee of the Assembly may table a bill before the Assembly subject to their respective competences.
- (2) A member of the Assembly may table a private bill before it on a matter that falls within the competence of the Assembly.
- (3) A private member bill shall not be tabled before the Assembly save after being referred to the appropriate committee to determine whether it involves an issue of important public interest.

Procedures for Presentation and Consideration of Bills

84. (1) Bills presented to the Assembly shall be submitted for the first reading by being cited by title. The bill shall then be submitted for a second reading for general deliberation and approval in principle. Should the bill be passed in the second reading, there shall be a third reading for deliberation in detail and introduction of, and decision upon, any amendment. The bill shall then be submitted in its final form for the final reading, at which stage the text of the bill shall not be subject to further discussion and shall be passed section by section and then passed as a whole.
- (2) After the first reading, the Speaker shall refer the bill to the appropriate committee of the Assembly, which shall make a general evaluation report for the purpose of the second reading. The committee shall also present a report on the amendments that the committee might or might not have endorsed in the third reading; the Speaker may also refer the bill once again to the appropriate committee to prepare a report on the final drafting in preparation for the final reading.

- (3) The Speaker of the Assembly or the appropriate committee may seek expert opinion on the viability and rationale of the bill; an interested body may also be invited to present views on the impact and propriety of the bill.
- (4) The Assembly may by a special resolution, decide on any bill as a general committee or by summary proceedings.

Assent of the President of the Government of Southern Sudan

85. (1) Any bill approved by the Assembly shall not become law unless the President of the Government of Southern Sudan assents to it and signs it into law. If the President withholds assent for thirty days without giving reasons, the bill shall be deemed to have been so signed.
- (2) Should the President of the Government of Southern Sudan withhold assent to the bill and give reasons within the aforementioned thirty days, the bill shall be re-introduced to the Assembly to consider the observations of the President of the Government of Southern Sudan.
- (3) The bill shall become law if the Assembly again passes it by a two-thirds majority of all its members, the assent of the President of the Government of Southern Sudan shall not be required for that bill to come into force.

Provisional Orders

86. (1) Should the Assembly not be in session, the President of the Government of Southern Sudan may, on an urgent matter, issue a provisional order having the force of law; however, such provisional order shall be submitted to the Assembly as soon as it is convened. Where the Assembly ratifies the provisional order as it is, it shall be promulgated as law, but where the same is rejected by the Assembly or where the parliamentary session ends without it being ratified, the provisional order shall lapse with no retrospective effect.

- (2) Notwithstanding sub-Article (1) above, the President of the Government of Southern Sudan shall not make any provisional order on matters affecting the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, the Bill of Rights, the decentralized system of government, general elections, annual allocation of resources and financial revenues, penal legislations or alteration of administrative boundaries of the states of Southern Sudan .
- (3) Any law which was repealed or amended pursuant to a provisional order that later lapsed, shall revive into force as it is, starting from the date when the provisional order lapsed.
- (4) The Assembly may delegate to the President of the Government of Southern Sudan the power to approve bilateral international and regional agreements while the Assembly is not in session; however, such agreements shall be subject to subsequent approval by the Assembly and shall be deposited before it as soon as it is convened.

Allocation of Resources and Revenues Bill

87. The President of the Government of Southern Sudan shall cause to be presented to the Assembly, before the beginning of the financial year, a bill of the allocation of resources and revenues in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution. The Assembly shall convene to approve, modify or reject that bill.

The Budget Bill

88. (1) The President of the Government of Southern Sudan shall cause to be presented to the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly before the beginning of the financial year the bill on the general budget of Southern Sudan, including a general evaluation of the economic and financial situation, detailed estimates of proposed revenues and expenditure for the forthcoming year compared to those of the previous financial year, a statement of the general budget, any reserve funds, transfers thereto or allocations therefrom, explanations of any special budgets or financial estimates, policies or measures to be taken by the Government of Southern Sudan in the financial and economic affairs within the framework of the general budget.
- (2) The President of the Government of Southern Sudan shall cause to be submitted to the Assembly proposals of total expenditure entered into the budget as an appropriation bill and proposals for taxes, fees and other levies as well as borrowing, investment or saving bonds as financial bills.

- (3) The Assembly shall discuss, and may amend, reject or adopt the general budget bill chapter by chapter including schedules, and it shall thereafter pass the appropriation bill in its totality. Where the bill is passed, detailed estimates as specified in the general budget shall not be exceeded save by a supplementary law. Surplus funds over revenue estimates and funds out of the legal reserve shall not also be spent save by a supplementary appropriation law.

Private Member Financial Bills

89. No member of the Assembly shall, outside the context of the deliberations of the draft general budget, present any private financial bill that entails abolition, remittance or alteration of any tax, fee or other public revenue source or appropriation or levy upon public funds other than service fees or pecuniary penalties.

Provisional and Supplementary Financial Measures

90. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 86 (2) above, the President of the Government of Southern Sudan may in the public interest, make a presidential order having the force of law, providing that the imposition of any tax, or fee or the amendment thereof shall come into force, pending submission of a bill requiring the same to the Assembly. When that financial bill is adopted or rejected, the force of the presidential order shall cease without the rejection or amendment of the bill having retrospective effect.
- (2) Where the procedure of adopting the general budget and the appropriation bill is delayed beyond the beginning of the financial year, expenditure shall continue pending adoption of the general budget, in accordance with the estimates approved for the previous year, as if the same has been appropriated by law for the New Year.
- (3) Whenever new circumstances occur or a matter of public concern proves not to have been satisfactorily addressed by the general budget, the President of the Government of Southern Sudan may during the financial year cause to be submitted a financial bill, a supplementary appropriation or an allocation out of the reserve funds, to which shall apply the same provisions set out in respect of the general budget bill.

Final Accounts

91. The President of the Government of Southern Sudan shall cause to be presented to the Assembly during the six months following the end of the financial year, final accounts for all revenues and expenditure as are set forth in that year, as well as expenditure withdrawn from the reserve funds; the Auditor General of Southern Sudan shall in accordance with Article 193 (3) herein present his or her report on such accounts to the Assembly.

Delegation of Powers of Subsidiary Legislation

92. The Assembly may, by law, delegate to the President of the Government of Southern Sudan, the Council of Ministers or any public body, the power to make any subsidiary regulations, rules, orders or any other subsidiary instrument having the force of law, provided that such subsidiary legislation shall be tabled before the Assembly and be subject to adoption or amendment by a resolution of the Assembly in accordance with the provisions of its regulations.

Validity of the Proceedings of the Assembly

93. No court or any other authority shall call into question the validity of any proceedings of the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly on the basis of violation of its internal regulations. A certificate duly signed by the Speaker shall be deemed to be conclusive evidence of the validity of the said proceedings.

CHAPTER II

CHAPTER V

FISCAL AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS IN SOUTHERN SUDAN

Southern Sudan Revenue Fund

185. (1) All revenues collected for or by the Government of Southern Sudan shall be pooled in a Southern Sudan Revenue Fund administered by the Southern Sudan Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning. Such Fund shall embrace all accounts and sub-funds, into which monies due to the Government of Southern Sudan are collected, reported or deposited.
- (2) Any withdrawals from the Southern Sudan Revenue Fund shall not be made except in accordance with the law.
- (3) All the revenues and expenditures of each level of government in Southern Sudan shall be on-budget operations and made public as the case may be.

Southern Sudan Fiscal and Financial Allocation and Monitoring Commission

186. (1) A Southern Sudan Fiscal and Financial Allocation and Monitoring Commission shall be established to ensure transparency and fairness both in regard to the allocation of funds collected at the level of Government of Southern Sudan to the states and local governments in Southern Sudan.
- (2) The Southern Sudan Fiscal and Financial Allocation and Monitoring Commission shall undertake the following duties and responsibilities:-
- (a) monitor and ensure that equalization grants from the Southern Sudan Revenue Fund are promptly transferred to respective levels of government;
 - (b) guarantee appropriate utilization and sharing of financial resources; and

- (c) safeguard transparency and fairness in the allocation of funds to the states and local governments in Southern Sudan.
- (3) The Southern Sudan Fiscal and Financial Allocation and Monitoring Commission shall be composed of representatives from the Government of Southern Sudan and the states as follows:-
 - (a) three representatives of Government of Southern Sudan; and
 - (b) a finance minister from each state of Southern Sudan.
- (4) The chairperson of the Southern Sudan Fiscal and Financial Allocation and Monitoring Commission shall be appointed by the President of Government of Southern Sudan after consultation with the Vice President of Government of Southern Sudan.
- (5) The Southern Sudan Fiscal and Financial Allocation and Monitoring Commission shall set its rules and procedures.
- (6) The Southern Sudan Fiscal and Financial Allocation and Monitoring Commission shall quarterly report to the President of Government of Southern Sudan and Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly about its performance and the President of Government of Southern Sudan shall take appropriate remedial action in case of failure by the Southern Sudan Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning to discharge any of the functions stipulated in Article 185 herein.

Southern Sudan Reconstruction and Development Fund

187. (1) There shall be established a Southern Sudan Reconstruction and Development Fund to solicit, raise and collect funds from domestic and international donors and disburse such funds for the reconstruction, rehabilitation and construction of the infrastructure of Southern Sudan, for the resettlement and reintegration of internally and externally displaced persons, and to address any imbalances in regional development and infrastructure.
- (2) A monitoring and evaluation system shall be established to ensure accountability, transparency, efficiency, equity and fairness in the utilization of resources.
 - (3) The Government of Southern Sudan shall be responsible for expenditure from the fund and shall be entitled to raise additional funds by way of donation from foreign States, multilateral organizations or other bodies for the purposes of the reconstruction and development of Southern Sudan states. The Fund shall be transparently administered and professionally managed subject to an oversight by Southern Sudan Assembly and a committee appointed by the Government of Southern Sudan but having on it a representative of the National Ministry of Finance and of the National Audit Chamber.

CHAPTER VI

BANKING IN SOUTHERN SUDAN

Banking System in Southern Sudan

188. There shall be established in Southern Sudan a conventional banking system in accordance with the provisions of Article 201 (2) of the Interim National Constitution.

Establishment of Bank of Southern Sudan

189. (1) There shall be established a Bank of Southern Sudan as a branch of the Central Bank of Sudan to provide, inter alia, conventional banking services within the framework of a single national monetary policy.
- (2) The Bank of Southern Sudan shall use the market-based conventional banking instruments developed by the Central Bank of Sudan to regulate and supervise the implementation of the national monetary policy in Southern Sudan.
- (3) The Bank of Southern Sudan shall be headed by a Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Sudan and who shall be a member of the Board of Directors of the Central Bank of Sudan.
- (4) The Bank of Southern Sudan, being a branch of the Central Bank of Sudan, shall manage the conventional window using conventional financing instruments in implementing the national monetary policy in Southern Sudan in relation to the following:
- (a) promoting and maintaining price stability;
 - (b) maintaining stable exchange rate;
 - (c) maintaining sound, effective and efficient banking and credit system;

- (d) chartering and supervising financial institutions in Southern Sudan; and
 - (e) doing all such other things not inconsistent with the national monetary policy.
- (5) All financial institutions in Southern Sudan shall be subject to internationally recognized regulatory and prudential standards for conventional finance as well as to rules and regulations, as set by the Central Bank of Sudan.

Management of Foreign Exchange Resources

190. (1) All foreign exchange resources of the Government of Southern Sudan shall be considered part of the national foreign exchange reserve and the Government of Southern Sudan shall use it to meet its foreign exchange requirements.
- (2) All domestic operations and transactions of Government of Southern Sudan shall be in the national currency and any other circulating currencies in Southern Sudan until a new currency is issued as provided in Article 207 of the Interim National Constitution provided that Government of Southern Sudan foreign exchange transactions shall be conducted through the Bank of Southern Sudan.
- (3) The Bank of Southern Sudan shall open a foreign correspondent account in a prime bank of its choice in which all foreign exchange resources of the Government of Southern Sudan shall be deposited.
- (4) The Bank of Southern Sudan shall manage this foreign correspondent account on the basis of the best banking practices in favour of the Government of Southern Sudan and disburse it in a way to ensure macro-economic stability and compliance with national monetary policy objectives and requirements.

Government of Southern Sudan Borrowing

191. (1) The Government of Southern Sudan, the states and local governments of Southern Sudan may borrow money. Neither the Government of Southern Sudan nor the Bank of Southern Sudan shall be required or expected to guarantee borrowing by any level of government in Southern Sudan.

- (2) The Government of Southern Sudan, states and local governments in Southern Sudan shall report financial and fiscal data to the relevant Government of Southern Sudan bodies for statistical purposes.
- (3) The governments of Southern Sudan and the states may borrow money from foreign sources based on their respective credit worthiness.
- (4) Foreign borrowing by governments of Southern Sudan and states shall be in a manner that does not undermine national macroeconomic policies and shall be consistent with the objective of maintaining external financial viability. All foreign borrowing transactions of all levels of government in Southern Sudan shall conform to the specifications of the Central Bank of Sudan.

CHAPTER VII

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Accounting Procedures, Standards and Fiscal Accountability

192. (1) All levels of government in Southern Sudan shall comply with generally accepted accounting procedures, standards and fiscal accountability to ensure that public funds are allocated and expended according to the budget of such level of government.
- (2) All levels of government in Southern Sudan shall hold all incomes and revenues received in public accounts and subject to public scrutiny and accountability.
 - (3) The accounting procedures, standards and fiscal accountability in Southern Sudan shall be regulated by law.

Southern Sudan Audit Chamber

193. (1) There shall be established an independent Southern Sudan Audit Chamber.
- (2) The Southern Sudan Audit Chamber shall set auditing standards for all levels of government in Southern Sudan and supervise the financial performance of these levels of government, including revenue collection and expenditure, in accordance with the budgets approved by their respective legislatures.

- (3) The President of the Government of Southern Sudan, with the approval of a two-thirds majority of the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly shall appoint the Southern Sudan Auditor General from qualified professionals, who shall head the Southern Sudan Audit Chamber and shall take oath before the President of the Government of Southern Sudan. The Southern Sudan Auditor General shall not be removed except in the same manner in which he or she is appointed.
- (4) The Southern Sudan Audit Chamber shall assume auditing of the accounts of the Southern Sudan Executive, the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly, the Southern Sudan Judiciary and the accounts of states, local governments, independent commissions, public institutions and corporations and any other institutions in Southern Sudan as may be determined by law.
- (5) The Southern Sudan Auditor General shall present an annual report to the President of the Government of Southern Sudan and the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly.
- (6) The Southern Sudan Auditor General shall be prohibited from engaging in all businesses in which constitutional office holders are not allowed to engage in pursuant to Article 121 (2) of this Constitution.
- (7) The law shall organize the Southern Sudan Audit Chamber and shall specify the functions, terms and conditions of service of its employees.

CHAPTER VIII

194. (1) Free interstate trade and commerce are guaranteed by this Constitution. No legislation shall impede interstate commerce, the flow of goods and services, capital or labour between the states and local governments in Southern Sudan.
- (2) There shall be no levies or fees or any other charges on interstate trade and commerce in Southern Sudan.

CHAPTER IX

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS FOR FINANCE AND BANKING

Circulating Currencies in Southern Sudan

195. (1) The Central Bank of Sudan shall issue a new currency, the design of which shall reflect the cultural diversity of the Sudan. Priority shall be given to meet currency demand and replacement of the circulating currencies in Southern Sudan.
- (2) Until a new currency is issued on the recommendation of the Central Bank of Sudan, the circulating currencies in Southern Sudan shall be recognised.

Government Liabilities and Assets

196. (1) Any debt or liability incurred by any level of government in Southern Sudan shall be the responsibility of that level of government.
- (2) There shall be a fair and equitable division of government assets in Southern Sudan. An asset shall in the first instance be allocated to the level of government responsible for the function in respect of which the asset is related. In the event of a dispute, such dispute shall be referred to a committee comprised of a representative of each of the parties involved in the dispute and a mutually agreed expert. The decision of the committee shall be final and binding.

PART THIRTEEN

STATE OF EMERGENCY IN SOUTHERN SUDAN

Declaration of State of Emergency in Southern Sudan

197. (1) Without prejudice to Article 210 (1) of the Interim National Constitution, the President of the Government of Southern Sudan, in consultation with the Southern Sudan Council of Ministers, may upon the occurrence of an imminent danger related to natural disaster or epidemics, as may threaten the civil life of the people of Southern Sudan, declare a state of emergency in Southern Sudan, or in any part thereof, in accordance with this Constitution and the law.
- (2) The President of the Government of Southern Sudan shall consult the President of the Republic prior to the declaration of the state of emergency.
- (3) The declaration of a state of emergency shall be submitted to the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly within fifteen days of the issuance of the declaration. When the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly is not in session, an emergency session shall be convoked.
- (4) When the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly approves the declaration of a state of emergency, all laws, exceptional orders or measures issued or taken by the President of the Government of Southern Sudan pursuant to the state of emergency shall continue to remain in force.

Powers of the President in Declaring State of Emergency

198. The President of Government of Southern Sudan, in consultation with the Southern Sudan Council of Ministers may during the state of emergency take, by virtue of law or exceptional order, any measures that shall not derogate from the provisions of this Constitution and the Comprehensive Peace Agreement except as may be provided herein:-
- (a) to suspend part of the Bill of Rights. However, there shall be no infringement on the right to life, sanctity from slavery, sanctity from torture, the right of non-discrimination on the basis of race, sex, religious creed, the right in litigation or the right to fair trial; and
- (b) to take any such measures as deemed necessary to the state of emergency, which shall have the force of law.

Termination of State of Emergency

199. The duration of the measures relating to the state of emergency shall expire in the following cases:-
- (a) lapse of thirty days as from the date of issuance of the declaration if the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly does not approve by a resolution the extension of its duration;
 - (b) lapse of the duration approved by the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly; and
 - (c) Issuance of a declaration by the President of Government of Southern Sudan after consultation within the Southern Sudan Council of Ministers lifting the state of emergency.

PART FOURTEEN
CENSUS AND ELECTIONS
CHAPTER I
CENSUS AND STATISTICS

The Southern Sudan Centre for Census, Statistics and Evaluation

200. (1) There shall be established by the President of the Government of Southern Sudan a Southern Sudan Centre for Census, Statistics and Evaluation according to the provisions of this Constitution and the law.
- (2) The Southern Sudan Centre for Census, Statistics and Evaluation shall be an autonomous statistics bureau authorized to:
- (a) collect, compile, analyze and publish all official statistical information on economic, social, demographic, environmental and general activities and conditions of the people of Southern Sudan;
 - (b) conduct all censuses and surveys that are carried out throughout Southern Sudan;
 - (c) monitor and evaluate social impacts of public policies, projects and programmes; and

- (3) There shall be established a Board of Directors that shall be the highest policy-making body of the Southern Sudan Centre for Census, Statistics and Evaluation. The Board shall set policies, priorities, standards and criteria for all the censuses and surveys to be carried out in Southern Sudan.

Southern Sudan Population Census

201. (1) A population census in Southern Sudan shall be conducted and completed by the end of the second year of the Interim Period.

- (2) The population census in Southern Sudan shall be conducted by the Southern Sudan Centre for Census, Statistics and Evaluation in coordination with the Central Bureau of Statistics.
- (3) In the interest of effectiveness in the execution of the population census or surveys throughout the Sudan, the Central Bureau of Statistics and Southern Sudan Centre for Census, Statistics and Evaluation shall coordinate, co-operate and assist each other in the fulfilment of their functions and may to this end, establish the necessary mechanisms and channels of implementation.

ELECTIONS IN SOUTHERN SUDAN

Time of Elections in Southern Sudan

202. General Elections at all levels of government in Southern Sudan shall be held not later than the end of the fourth year of the Interim Period.

Referendum in Southern Sudan

203. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement and the Interim National Constitution, the President of Government of Southern Sudan, after consultation within the Southern Sudan Council of Ministers or the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly, by resolution passed by more than half of the members, may refer to referendum any matter of public interest within the competencies of the Government of Southern Sudan.
- (2) Without prejudice to Articles 220 (1) and 222 of the Interim National Constitution, the referenda in Southern Sudan on matters affecting Southern Sudan shall be conducted by appropriate authority established by the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution and the law.
 - (3) The subject submitted to referendum would achieve the confidence of the people by obtaining more than half of the number of votes cast.

- (4) Any resolution which has achieved the consent of the people by referendum shall have authority above any other legislation. It shall not be annulled save by another referendum.

Running for Elections in Southern Sudan

204. Whoever runs in any elections in Southern Sudan shall respect, abide by and enforce the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, the Interim National Constitution and this Constitution.

PART FIFTEEN

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Coming into Force

205. (1) This Constitution shall be cited as the Interim Constitution of Southern Sudan, 2005; its English and Arabic versions are equally official and authentic. Any reference in it to the masculine gender in the Arabic text also denotes the feminine gender.
- (2) Upon the adoption of this Constitution by the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly; it shall be presented to the National Ministry of Justice which shall, within two weeks from the date of receipt, declare its compatibility with the Interim National Constitution.
- (3) This Constitution shall come into force on the date of signature by the President of the Government of Southern Sudan.

Amendment of this Constitution

206. (1) This Constitution shall not be amended unless the proposed amendments are approved by three-quarters of all the members of the Southern Sudan Legislative Assembly and only after introduction of the draft amendment at least two months prior to the deliberations.
- (2) Any amendment affecting the provisions of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement shall be introduced only with the approval of both Parties signatory to the Comprehensive Peace Agreement.
